Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the Software Tester/Developer position at your company. With over five years of experience in both software development and QA, I bring a unique combination of coding expertise and testing discipline.

Throughout my career, I have worked extensively with tools such as Selenium, Postman, and JUnit, and have implemented automated testing suites integrated into CI/CD pipelines. My background in Java and JavaScript allows me to collaborate closely with developers and contribute effectively to all phases of the software lifecycle.

I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to join your team and contribute to delivering high-quality software products. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my skills can benefit your organization.

Sincerely,

John Doe
